About twenty visitors and friends gathered to do the honours. Miss Bernice Janz favored them with a vocal solo. Three guessing games afforded much amusement. They were won by Miss Doreen Robarge, Miss Bonita Johnson and Miss Margaret Clark. Many useful gifts were offered by Mr. Law in the presence of her friends.

Church Services will be resumed in Knox Presbyterian Church, Bassano, on Sunday evening, Aug. 14th, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Scott, of Bassano, were presented with a number of gifts during their thirtieth year in the district on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday. Dr. Scott has been practicing in Bassano since 1911 and in recent years he has used an airplane for trips to remote corners of his wide field.

The following poem has been contributed to express the sentiments of the Doctors' many friends.

THE COUNTRY DOCTOR

He calls no hour of day or night his own;
Through heat or cold, he goes his rounds alone;
Here, to bring some mortal into being;
There, to ease some soul of its load of grief,
The doctor's tale of woes.
Forges himself that he may give relief
To bodies suffering, or tortured minds;
To service all men, his pleasure finds.
May God forever bless him with His grace,
With us, no one can ever take his place.

Unity Association Formed, Bow Valley Constituency

Rosemary

Electors representing all shades of political opinion met at the Cushing Inn, Building yesterday afternoon and organized a branch of the Unity Council for Bow Valley Constituency affiliated with the Unity Council, recently formed in the City of Calgary. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Wilfred Walters, who acted as temporary Chairman.

Mr. Walters outlined the purpose of the meeting and presented a list of resolutions, chief of which was the calling of a convention in April, to consider the formation of a political association for Bow Valley. This resolution was adopted unanimously after comparatively little discussion.

Officers and Directors were appointed as follows: Chairman, Dr. A. G. Scott; Vice-Chairman, Ed Christie; Secretary, Mr. Fred Smith; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Fred Smith; Treasurer, Mrs. M. McCallum; and seven directors, Phil Rogers of Cushing; H. B. Stitt of Husar; J. C. Lawson of Hussar; Wilfred Walters of Mapleleaf; Mrs. Bert S. Plumer of Banff; W. S. Pollock of Canmore; and A. Burke of Cochrane. The election of officers was postponed until the executive session.

Congratulations are extended to E. Orlati, formerly of Slavey, for winning third in the bareback bucking horse contest in the Gem Stampede on Saturday.

Final examination results obtained from Edmonton recently proved successful. The Students are congratulated on their good marks and high passes.

President and Mrs. Palmer of Lethbridge were special speakers at the Mormon Church on Sunday.

The full extent of the damage was not ascertained till the following morning.

Mrs. Engle, Norma and May

p.m. Mr. Richard Main, Pastor, will be present and deliver the address. Mr. Main has been holding at the coast and in Calgary for the past few weeks.

Seven Injured In Car Accident Near Rosemary

A near disaster motor accident which occurred near Rosemary last Friday morning, made a sudden end of what had been a pleasant journey through Canada for six Georgians. U.S.A. tourists, when their car became entangled with another car, driven by J. McHale, E.I.D. Employee of Rosemary.

The accident occurred at the corner where the road from Rosemary joins the highway to the south.

Those injured were Miss Josephine Pen, of Moncton; driver; Miss Mae Penn, also of Moncton; Miss Elma Cowan of Social Circle; Mrs. Mrs. Hart of Madison; Miss F. Moye of Millville; Miss M. Park of Eaton Park; and Mr. J. McHale of Rosemary.

Jim Tiesen, who was present at the meeting of the Georgia tourists, was driving the car which had been involved.

Every possible care was done for the injured persons until Dr. Anderson arrived from Brooks.

The remaining three persons who had been seriously injured to be moved, so the Dr. came, were then removed to the Bassano Hospital, Everyone wished these people well and Jim McHale a speedy recovery.

Congratulations are extended to E. Orlati, formerly of Slavey, for winning third in the bareback bucking horse contest in the Gem Stampede on Saturday.

BASSANO RECORDER

Published every Thursday at the Office or the Bassano Recorder, in the Currie and Milner Building, Bassano.
Advertising rates furnished on application.

FLOYD T. CARY,
Publisher.

A DISCOVERY

LAST WEEK the Morning Albertan published a front page story emanating allegedly from Edmonton forecasting the death of Social Credit, "repudiating the possibility of a new economic order or that there can be such a thing as provincial control of money or credit and stating that 'Basic Dividend' will not be paid.

The story broke suddenly, and caused quite a stir. What was it all about? We could not understand. It was not a new discovery. The same story in different words has been printed and repeated many times everywhere in the Province and elsewhere. The astounding part is that the Alberta published it. It may be merely the forerunner of complete renunciation of the Government and its policies by the Alberta, the official organ of the party to read. If that is so, it might better have come through the editorial column.

It was surprising, however, that once again Mr. Aberhart was compelled to brand the statements contained in the article as "false and without foundation." One would think that plain honesty would compel the Premier to admit the obvious and quit trying to kid the public.

THE WHEAT BOARD

NOTWITHSTANDING the Federal Government's announced intention to be governed by recommendations of the Telford Grain Commission, the trustees or shareholders of the Grain Board, the Government has been forced to do an about turn. That Commission advocated discontinuance of the Grain Board and contended that the usual channels of trade and commerce were sufficient to see that Canadian Grain was properly marketed on a fair basis to the producer and consumer alike.

In Western Canada with the first fair crop in years in sight and last year's record price of a declining price, the thought of abolition of the Grain Board was unpleasant. Farm organizations, individual farmers, boards of trade and others got behind the move to retain the Grain Board and have succeeded. As a result while the price has been pegged at a much lower rate than will meet the average cost of production, the Wheat Board will continue to function, and may finally become one of our permanent Governmental institutions.

OIL PRODUCTION

"I might not be misunderstood I would like to give the impression to all who are interested in development of the oil field in this territory (Turner Valley) that it is necessary to under estimate rather than over-estimate present production."

While R. B Bennett refused to discuss the foregoing, his enigmatic utterance he did say that "production of the field increases to the extent anticipated in some quarters the problem of transportation to the great Canadian markets is not incapable of solution."

The question facing oil producers in Alberta today is not one of production in the Turner Valley. That has been proved. It is now a question of further exploration, development and discovery of existing and new fields in order that sufficient oil production may be assured to warrant the expense of constructing the necessary pipe lines to the Coast or to the Great Lakes. When that becomes certain the problem will become at once "not incapable of solution."

JAPAN AND RUSSIA

ANOTHER "unofficial war" appears to be raging "Somewhere in Asia along a front said to be four miles long, the batters beat the Japanese, the Japanese beat the Russians, the Russians beat the right to occupy a certain small strip of territory, probably of little intrinsic value. Frankly, if they want to fight about it let them hop to it. It won't make us mad. But we do regret the apparent ferocity with which the battle is being conducted. According to reports six-inch shells a minute fired by Russian batteries were hitting the Japanese lines, and had caused them to evacuate temporarily. Just think, that is only Fritz' usual early morning pleasant surprise! Oh boy, that is only Fritz' usual early morning pleasant surprise! Get back to your cookie killing, you damned old sweat."

ROAD KILLINGS

TWO RECENT terrible accidents involving automobiles in this neighborhood have served to focus attention once again on the dangers of travel on the highway today. Unfortunately in both cases from the United States were involved and holiday trips for pleasure became nightmares of horror.

According to the answer, admitting that the 25 to 30 miles per hour of former days may be too slow for this age of speed does not justify the recklessness abounding with which present-day motorists tear up and down the highways. While cars are better built and safer than in former days, it is equally true that the dangers of highway travel have increased with the ever-increasing capacity of the automobile. If the cause of the major portion of these increases is too great speed, which admits of little or no dispute, then the answer ought to be that speed limits ought to be restricted to a reasonable margin of safety. In addition, public disregard of highway regulations being what it is, every automobile ought to be equipped with a governor, which will restrict the speed of every car to a minimum speed of not more than 50 miles per hour. Any person who wants to drive a car faster than that, particularly on our roads, ought not to be allowed on the highway in charge of such a vehicle.

DO UNTO OTHERS

HECKLING, unkindness and turbulence has prevailed at Social Credit meetings in various places in the Province recently which has caused the Premier and certain members of his cabinet to complain bitterly. However much such a tendency may be regretted, it is fair to say that much of it is merely just retribution because of other questions, threats of boycott and "putting people where they belong" thereby inviting trouble. Personal application of the golden rule, more tolerance, less name calling and a kindler attitude to those who disagree might have saved the Premier his recent experience. As ye sow so shall ye reap.

ENCEPHALOMYELITIS

HORSES in Bassano district are suffering severely from the above disease. We don't want to print it again, cannot guarantee the correctness of our spelling, and have given up trying to pronounce it. Like feaver the cause of the disease seems to be unknown and the cure equally uncertain.

From Our Exchange Columns*WHAT DO TOURISTS REMEMBER?

What are tourists most likely to remember in any passing acquaintance with a town? Certainly a general impression of friendliness and helpfulness of the people, carried home in their memories especially of friendly human associations, some little extra service extended, some evidences of personal interest. Unpleasant experiences are always retained in the memory and people will remember a town in which prices are exorbitantly high, or they had a bad repair job done, or were unfairly treated for some little violation of local traffic rules.

People on holidays are usually in friendly spirit. As a rule they like to engage in casual conversation with the people because they are thrown into limited society for miles of travel. It is a good plan to humor travellers who are in talking mood and to show some human interest, in where they are from, where they are going and how they are enjoying themselves. They themselves may not return again this way, but they can spread among others, many reports of good will.

It is curious but true, that recollections of travel, centre so largely around the people with whom one comes in contact. Many a time one has remained in such a place a week or two and am going to stay there again, not because accommodation is the finest, but the people we met were obliging and friendly."

It has often been said that tourists visit other places in order to see something different. Is it quite possible that there are attractions or products strictly Albertan, which may not have been emphasized in the full? Alberta prime beef, fresh Alberta vegetables might make an extra appeal if they were sufficiently advertised. Products of Alberta, at least Canadian manufacture, could be placed on by merchants to a greater extent than now prevails. Our natural scenery of wheat fields, foothills and mountains are not often found in such proximity in many parts of the continent. The trout streams and the Valley Oil Fields are distinctively Albertan.

Most local people, aware of the possibilities of tourist trade, have vague suggestions by which this town itself might capitalize on its attractions. If all these suggestions could be pooled, there might develop a few workable worth-while ideas, quite within the scope of accomplishment.

THE RED DESTROYER

Lumber production is to British Columbia what grain production is to Alberta. Nature has blessed the most western of Canadian provinces with an abundance of forests of exceptionally fine trees. Proximity to the ocean enables the lumbermen of the coast province to ship timber all over the world.

The greatest menace to B. C.'s lumber industry is forest fires. Each year this "red destroyer" takes a tremendous toll of standing trees. Fires are caused by man's carelessness and by lightning, more by the former than the latter. There seems to be no adequate method of coping with this menace.

The sunburned Vancouver Island forest has been by one of the most destructive fires ever known has been in a generation. Millions of feet of potential lumber has been destroyed by the fire which virtually gutted the island's interior, leaving it a sizzling furnace. The smoke clouds arising from this immense fire have penetrated eastward as far as Alberta.

Not only has there been a destruction of forests, but wild life has suffered terribly. News stories from Victoria tell of the almost complete disappearance of birds and beasts from the devastated area. It will be a generation, at least, before Nature slowly restores this condition.

This is to sight some break in a region that has been fire-swept. Those who have travelled the mountain can testify to this statement. After a fire the first thing that greets the eye is grey ash mingled with brown earth, and a few gaunt skeletons of trees standing dismally against the mountain side. As the years pass new growth springs up but it takes a long time to restore conditions. — Hanna Herald.

HOME IMPROVEMENT OPPORTUNITY

Offered to the home owners of this district by the Royal Bank, working in co-operation with the federal Home Improvement Act, opportunity to borrow money on reasonable terms for home improvement is being very well utilized, according to recent reports. It is the clear lack of clear understanding of the terms and conditions of the loans is responsible for local failure to take full advantage of what appears to be a splendid offer. Listed brief here are the principal facts which should be of interest to those wishing to improve their dwelling places. Full details may be obtained from the Royal Bank.

It is difficult for a loan, the borrower must be a resident in the premises which he will improve, and must own a substantial equity in them. Full ownership is not necessary if it can be shown that the improvements are unlikely to revert to anyone but the borrower. Reasonable arrears of payment on a mortgage or of taxes do not preclude possibility of a loan. Payment of back taxes being accepted as satisfactory. The borrower must be of a good character and must have an evident source of payment. No security is necessary, unless the payments are not kept up.

The maximum time allowed for the repayment of larger loans is three years, except in special cases where more time is allowed and two years for smaller sums. The interest which is approximately 6 per cent on the amount of the loan in actual existence is deducted from the loan when the borrower receives it; and the principal is paid back in equal monthly payments. For example, if a man borrows $125.00 he paid back over a period of two years, he will receive $125.00 less $7.58 and will pay it back at the rate of $5.21 monthly for 24 months.

Money will be lent for such improvements, only, as are of a permanent nature; that is improvements which may not be taken from the premises. For example, money would be lent for modernization of the home, plumbing, for paint in cupboards etc., but not for movable furniture. — Cardston News.

DIVORCE GROUNDS
AND HOW THEY GET IT.*And They Got a Divorce

"While he Peter actually struck me," explained Mrs. Sarah Sanders, suing Edward Sanders for divorce, "he would go around slapping his fist against doors and saying, 'I will hit you.'"

Once he had to hurried a prickly cactus plant out his wife while in a stooping position. Mrs. John D. Crane of Cambridge, Mass., was an uncontested divorce from her husband, a Harvard University Instructor.

Judges of the Paris Divorce Court got a new one to figure out when a woman sued her husband for damages because she had six children.

Testifying that her husband had forced her out by hitting her on the head with a raw chicken and then, finding the bird had killed the chicken, revived her and ordered her to cook it, Mrs. Vicki Beck sued for divorce.

Aida Leonard, strip-tease dancer, fled suit to divorce her husband, because she took his faults and to resent the fact that her husband doesn't resent the fact that she is doing this kind of work." Is that clear?

William Wilson divorced his wife because she took his faults and to resent the fact that she is doing this kind of work.

Samuel Hartman, chemist and poet of Hollywood, was divorced by his wife, who objected to jingles he dedicated to her:

"When you're away, I'm restless,
lonely, bored;
When you're here, delighted;
But here's a rub, my darling deer,
I feel the same when you are here.

PLOTS INTERESTING SIGHT

Working in co-operation with the Crop Testing Plan Mr. G. S. Warren of Bassano, has produced a farmer on his premises that is very interesting to see.

The Crop Testing Plan, a movement sponsored by the Dominion Government, the Canadian Wheat Board, elevator companies and their agents, was organized for the purpose of supplying a higher standard of seed grain to farmers throughout the three prairie provinces. The organization is in its fourth year.

Mr. Warren's duty in assisting with the Plan, has been to plant numerous varieties of grain in small plots

Arrowwood

Mr. R. R. Saunders was a visitor in Arrowwood on Wednesday.

Mr. J. R. Wyatt accompanied by Jim Craig made a trip to Regina where they took in the fair.

The first load of 1938 wheat arrived in town yesterday, Aug. 4th, at the U.G.C. elevator, grading No. 1. The grain was from Mr. G. Jones' farm.

Mr. M. R. Lemay and two daughters of Mrs. Lemay were visitors at the home of his son of Arrowwood, where Gladys and Marjorie are spending a few days.

Times seem to be picking up around Arrowwood with all the new developments in the area. Mr. A. A. Campbell with his new Chevrolet, Lewiston with a Terraplane, Mr. M. DeWitt and Mr. Glen House with a new International light delivery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ward and family were visitors in Arrowwood over the weekend.

Miss Willa Lett left for Red Deer where she will be relieving Dr. hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Culp and family returned from their holidays Sunday evening.

record the progress of each variety, and send samples of the seed from each to the headquarters, where it is graded as Class 'A', 'B' or 'C' seed. This is a highly recommended for seedling in each district. Quantities of this seed are made available to farmers for planting the following year.

In the local plots, fine samples of wheat, oats and barley have been sown in various varieties of each were planted, and the results have been very satisfactory. Already a number of local farmers and citizens have shown keen interest in the progress of the experiment, and have been a caller on Mr. Warren to advise to do so as early as possible and see for themselves, the varieties suited to this district.

Besides spending a considerable portion of his spare time working, Mr. Warren is not neglecting his garden. Practically every vegetable which can grow in this climate has been a grower in his garden. A great deal of care has been taken, and the garden is well planned. Mr. Warren is experimenting in the growing of fruit such as raspberries and plums, and his success will be watched with much local interest.

Instead of more people per square mile, the world needs more square miles per mile.

This Week's Poem*MY WISH FOR TODAY

By Edna Jaques

Oh may I be a friend of friendless folk,
In their dark hour when the tides are low,
When they have need of love to watch with them,
Or find a let in their way.
Oh may I be a kind of neighbor, Lord,
That folks can count on when they need a friend,
Someone to stick to them and help them out
At some dark journey's end.
Oh, let me feel the weight of hopeless days,
The sense of tears, the sense of fears of despair,
When we have need of prayer.
Let me just live a simple, quiet life
With time to do small kindly things, an see
The fruits of love, the grace of precious deeds,
Reflecting back to me.

LETTER OF THANKS SENT TO GEM LADIES' CLUB

To the Ladies' Club,

Gem, Alta.

Dear Friends:

I wish to extend a hearty "thank you" to each contributor to the Hope Chest. I have changed the name from "Hope to Treasure Chest". This is the second time I have won the leading prize at Gem. The first a girl named Mary, who graduated with the school, and now the Hope Chest has come along with the school. The law of averages pays ten-fold to all free givers, if not in prizes, it represents acts of service through the social and active accomplishments. Now I wish each one of you to keep the above actions in mind and pray for a rise in the Standard of Living.

Yours very respectfully,
Rankin Peter Smith,
Gem, Alta.

PASSES GRADE XII: HONORS

Rosemary, Aug. 6th — Congratulations to Miss Bettie Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Rosemary, who passed her Grade
XII subjects with honors.
Bette has made honors in all four years of high school, having taken three years in Rosemary, and she fourth year, Grade XII, at the High at Alexandra High School.

FLASH — At time of going to press, we are informed that the first wheel of the 1938 crop was hauled into the local elevator by Mr. E. F.
Maurer. It graded No. 1.

The fellow who pulls the carts doesn't have time to rock the boat.

It is well to be a leader, but be cautious what you lead.

REUNION IN LONDON

Four of Bassano's former youths,
all now members of the Royal Air Force in England, held quite a happy reunion recently in London. These boys are sons of Robert Harper, who became a member of the flying service on July 15th, 1936. They had just left England about a year ago and had been in India for three years. The boys spent three years. The boys spent a week-end together in London.

It's the easiest thing in the world for us to raise the devil with our children for raising the devil we used to raise ourselves when we were children.
